

Comedy Show Benefits Brewster Veteran Projects

Putnam County-based H.G. Fairfield Arts is sponsoring, along with VFW Post #672 and Semper Fi Students of BHS, a Comedy Show to benefit important Brewster veteran projects. The show is set for Friday, June 27th, at 7:30 pm at Brewster High School's Performing Arts Center.

The night's line-up aims to raise spirits, funds, and awareness and includes national headlining comedian and NAVY veteran, PJ Walsh (Brewster H.S. Class of 1990), the Manhattan Association of Cabarets & Clubs' Outstanding Female Comedian Mary Dimino, and the i95 Home of Rock 'n Roll's on-air personality Lou Milano (BHS '97). H. G. Fairfield Arts' & PJ Walsh's Courage Continues At Home Comedy Tour, now in its 4th year, focuses attention this June on Brewster VFW Post #672's 75th Jubilee in September and on the positive healthy impact local Brewster veteran projects have in Putnam County and nationally.

Tickets are $20 at Brown-PaperTickets.com. Stay tuned to i95 WKRI for updates and visit www.HGFairfieldArts.org, "Courage Continues At Home" on Facebook, or call 845-363-1559 for more info.

Are you and your family protected?

When was the last time you looked at your will? Has it been reviewed by an attorney? Do you know how to locate the original documents? Or, better yet, have you ever hired an attorney to draft your will, power of attorney or health care proxy? Has the thought crossed your mind that it may be time to get your estate in order? Are you familiar with the changes in the law that may have an impact on your overall estate and planning for the future?

If interested in a free review of your estate plan and consultation, call Rachel Flanagan, Esq., (in home appointments available upon request)

PHOTO PROVIDED

National comedian PJ Walsh, a NAVY veteran, performs here in 2004 at an Iraq FOB (Forward Operations Base) for the U.S. troops. PJ has done at least 20 tours overseas to entertain our troops and returns to his hometown of Brewster, ending the ban of him at his high school (BHS '90). #thebanbeenlifted will get you to tickets for the 7:30pm June 27th Comedy Show at BHS to benefit the game-changer Semper Fi Odyssey, Brewster VFW Post 672's Relief Fund, & the BHS Semper Fi Students helping veterans projects.
