

Comedy Show Benefits Brewster Veteran Projects

PHOTO PROVIDED

National comedian PJ Walsh, a NAVY veteran, performs here in 2004 at an Iraq FOB (Forward Operations Base) for the US troops. PJ has done at least 20 tours overseas to entertain our troops and returns to his hometown of Brewster, ending the ban of him at his high school (BHS '90). #thebandeenlified will get you to tickets for the 7:30pm June 27th Comedy Show at BHS to benefit the game-changer Semper Fi Odyssey, Brewster VFW Post 672's Relief Fund, & the BHS Semper Fi Students helping veterans projects.

Putnam County-based H.G. Fairfield Arts is sponsoring, along with VFW Post #672 and Semper Fi Students of BHS, a Comedy Show to benefit important Brewster veteran projects. The show is Friday, June 27th, at 7:30pm at Brewster High School's Performing Arts Center.

The night's line-up aims to raise spirits, funds, and awareness and includes national headlining comedian and NAVY veteran, PJ Walsh (Brewster H.S. Class of 1990), the Manhattan Association of Cabarets & Clubs' Outstanding Female Comedian Mary Dimino, and the 195 Home of Rock 'n Roll's on-air personality Lou Milano (BHS '97). H.G. Fairfield Arts' & PJ Walsh's Courage Continues At Home Comedy Tour, now in its 4th year, focuses attention this June on Brewster VFW Post #672's 75th Jubilee in September and on the positive healthy impact local Brewster veteran projects have in Putnam County and nationally.

Tickets are $20 at Brown-PaperTickets.com. Stay tuned to 195 WKRI for updates and visit www.HGFairfieldArts.org, "Courage Continues At Home" on Facebook, or call 845-363-1559 for more info.

THE MANITOU
SCHOOL

engaging, bilingual education for curious,
creative kids

Now accepting applications for

PRESCHOOL and PRE-K to K BRIDGE, and LOWER ELEMENTARY PROGRAMS